

Tara Priyadarshini Bikkasani

She took rapid strides in her ascent to the peak of excellence under the expert tutelage of Nritya Choodamani Smt. Krishnaveni Lakshmanan of Kalakshetra, School of Fine Arts, Chennai, She mastered the intricacies of Abhinaya under the well known guru Padmashri Dr. Nataraja Ramakrishna of Hyderabad. She also had the privilege of learning Adhyatma Ramayana abhinayam from Smt. Saride Manikyamma, a legendary exponent of the Temple Dance form. Tara combines impeccable artise accomplishments with impressive academic attainments. A Post Graduate in Industrial Psychology from Bangalore University and has credited several papers on various aspects of dance which have appeared in many International Journals. Tara Priyadarshini has been the venter of attention of the media and connoisseurs of Art by performing extensively, not only in India and the United States, but also in the United Kingdom, Germany, and multiple South East Asian Countries. She has trained many students who have had arangetrams and choreographed many dance dramas including Ramayana and Krishnam Vande Jagathguru. Today, Tara Priyadarshini continues her passion for dance by teaching students at her school Tanmayee in Tampa, Florida.

